

This document is to show sales between May 31st 2007 and September 10th 2007. This information has been removed from PayPal's history on my account transactions. I did not remove these transactions. I have these stored in e-mails from eBay. Statistics based on this data in a separate .xls document will show how much PayPal owes me for my not being able to sell on ebay because they have taken my funds.
